

Workers Compensation & Safety

Safety

It is important that you use good judgment while at your training site to avoid personal injuries. Do not operate any equipment or machinery without your Training Site Supervisor's permission and instructions. Follow all safety procedures recommended by your Training Site Supervisor and avoid carelessness at all times.

Workers Compensation

Our insurance coverage will pay for your doctor visit if you are injured on the job, but NOT the time you are out of work if you are injured on the job. You are only paid for the hours that you are at your training site.

Remember that it is against the law to say you are hurt when you are not. There are very serious fines and punishments for falsifying an on the job injury claim.

Report all injuries immediately to your Training Site Supervisor and Career Mentor

If you are injured on the job:

1. If it is an emergency, have your Training Site Supervisor immediately take you to the nearest medical facility.
2. If it is not an emergency, report your injury to your Training Site Supervisor and contact your Career Mentor.
3. You will have to sign your written statement regarding how you became injured.
4. Even if it is a small injury and you don't think it is important enough to bother your Training Site Supervisor with, please still inform them.
